Chapters Eight to Ten

Answer the questions in complete sentences.

1. Before you begin the next few chapters, think about Opal and Winn-Dixie. Before Opal found Winn-Dixie, she was alone most of the time. Now that she has Winn-Dixie as a pet, she has discussed her mother with the preacher and she has made her first friend in Naomi. Explain, in your own words, how Winn-Dixie has helped Opal do these things.

2. Have you ever been to a pet store? Which one was it? Which part of the store is your favorite? Explain.

Writing Task #1

Chapters 1 to 5

In the early chapters of the novel, we are introduced to Opal and her father, and the relationship they have. Into this family comes Winn-Dixie, and things begin to change for Opal. Pretend you are Opal, and write a diary of the first few days that you have Winn-Dixie, from the first time you see him to the day you take him to the library to sit on the shelf, to the time he catches the mouse in the Open Arms Baptist Church.

For each diary entry, consider:

* what your family situation is, and your relationship with the preacher;
* what events happen because of Winn-Dixie;
* how your relationship with the preacher begins to change;
* how Winn-Dixie begins to change the Dewberry family and the preacher.

Writing Task #2

Chapters 6, 7, 15, 16 and 17

Opal’s first friend in Naomi is Miss Franny Block, the librarian at the Herman W. Block Memorial Library. Think about Miss Franny, and the stories she tells, and pretend you are writing a chapter in a nonfiction tour book about the famous people and history of Naomi, Florida. Write the chapter about Miss Franny, her library, and her family’s history. Include as many details from the novel as you can.

For example, you may wish to begin in this way:

One of Naomi’s oldest living residents is Miss Franny Block, the librarian at the Herman W. Block Memorial Library, and heiress to the Block family fortune.

Part B

Answer the questions in complete sentences.

1. Look at Gloria Dump’s words in question 2 c) of the previous page. We know she is talking about Winn-Dixie here, but how might her words also be about Opal’s mother? Explain your thoughts.

2. What can we infer about Opal from her reaction to forgetting about Winn-Dixie? Why did she feel like crying?

3. Evaluate Opal as a pet owner. Has she done a good job of caring for Winn-Dixie? Support your opinions with proof from the story.

4. Think about all of the people invited to Opal and Gloria Dump’s garden party. What do they all have in common? Compare three of the guests.

Journal Activity

Pretend you are Opal, just at the moment that she realizes that Winn-Dixie is missing. How would you feel? Why would you feel this way? Write Opal’s journal entry showing her feelings at this moment.
