

How the Camel Got His Hump

by Rudyard Kipling

KNOWLEDGE

1. What did Camel answer when someone spoke to him?
2. Where did the Camel live when the world was new?
3. What three animals asked the Camel to share in the work?

COMPREHENSION

4. What adjective describes Camel's behavior?
5. Why did Man say that the Horse, the Dog, and the Ox would have to work double-time?
6. What is a Djinn?

APPLICATION

7. Write five facts about camels.
8. Draw a chart that shows the differences between the Arabian camel and the Bactrian camel.
9. What might the Horse, the Dog, or the Ox have said to the Camel to get him to work?

ANALYSIS

10. Compare and contrast the Camel and the Elephant's child.
11. If you were the Camel, would you be happy to have your hump?
12. The Camel is well-suited for the desert environment. Choose another animal and show how it is well adapted for its environment.

SYNTHESIS

13. Write an acrostic poem about the camel.
14. Think of something else the Djinn might have done to get the Camel to do his share.
15. Add another animal who might complain about the Camel to Man and the Djinn. Add the dialogue to the story.

EVALUATION

16. Judge the Djinn's handling of the situation.
17. Judge Man's handling of the situation.
18. Tell why you would or would not recommend this tale to others.