

Behind Rebel Lines Multiple Choice 6-8

Chapters 6-8

* Required

1. Your Name: Last, First *

---

2. How does Cuff get into the rebel camp? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff crawls over the open zone when the moon is covered by clouds, then waits until the pickets change watch and slips in while the exchange of pickets takes place.
- B. Cuff waits until clouds cover the moon, then races over the open zone. When he reaches the picket line, he throws stones to distract one of the pickets. While the picket investigates the noise, Cuff runs past the picket line.
- C. Cuff crawls over the open zone, times the pickets and runs through the gap.
- D. Cuff waits for a cloud to drift over the moon, then darts from tree to tree. He times the pickets and races through the gap.

3. How does Cuff get work in the rebel camp? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff joins a group of slaves and works, not noticed, in the kitchen.
- B. Cuff holds back from the group of slaves he is with. A Confederate officer notices him and tells a sergeant to "Put this cheeky rascal to work."
- C. An officer passing by notices Cuff is not working. He assumes Cuff is a slave and sends him to dig ditches.
- D. Cuff asks a rebel soldier where he can get work in the camp. The soldier sends him to the stables where he works taking care of the horses and cleaning the barn.

4. What is Cuff's job at the Confederate camp? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff's job is to carry water to the men working on the parapet.
- B. Cuff's job is to dig trenches and gun pits.
- C. Cuff's duty is to fill a wheelbarrow with gravel, push it up an inclined plane to the top of the parapet, and dump the ballast between the stakes.
- D. Cuff's job is to pound stakes into the ground.

5. At day's end, Cuff writes down the information he has accumulated. Where does he hide the paper? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff pins the paper to the inside of his shirt.
- B. Cuff hides the paper under the lining in his shoe.
- C. Cuff hides the paper under the lining in his hat.
- D. Cuff writes the information, then memorizes it and destroys the paper.

6. Cuff trades jobs with one of the kitchen slaves. What does Cuff give him for trading? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. a small bag of candy
- B. a rusty penknife
- C. a deck of cards
- D. a spool of thread and a needle

7. What information does Cuff learn as he takes meals to artillery crews and carries pots and buckets with Jabez? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff learns General Lee thinks their defenses are adequate, that a group of Quakers will reinforce the troops and they are short of food.
- B. Cuff learns that the entire camp is being moved closer to Yorktown.
- C. Cuff learns that General Lee is planning an attack on General McClellan's fortifications as soon as General Johnston and his soldiers join Lee. That should be in about two weeks.
- D. Cuff learns about the Confederate fortifications, that reinforcements are expected, that Lee doesn't think their defenses are strong enough and that Quaker guns are being installed.

8. How does Cuff manage to get out of the Confederate camp? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Cuff waits for a rainy, dark night and sneaks out past the pickets and outposts.
- B. Cuff is ordered to take food to one of the pickets. As the man eats, Cuff walks away unnoticed.
- C. Cuff hides in a load of trash being taken far outside of camp.
- D. Until he can get a proper replacement, a lieutenant sends Cuff to replace a man who was shot at one of the outposts.

9. When Private Thompson gives his report to General McClellan, what souvenir does the adjutant allow Thompson to keep? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. a rebel bugle
- B. an Enfield carbine
- C. a Confederate flag
- D. a rebel musket

10. After the siege of Yorktown, what keeps the Union army from quickly reaching Richmond? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. the Chickahominy River and Congress
- B. mud and the Chickahominy River
- C. the Shenandoah River and famine
- D. rain, mud, and General Grant's troops

11. Why does McClellan remember Private Thompson? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. McClellan needs to know the number of troops defending Richmond and remembers the good spy, Private Thompson.
- B. McClellan is writing a book and remembers to include Private Thompson's success at Yorktown.
- C. McClellan needs to know what's going on with the citizens inside the city of Richmond. He remembers Private Thompson's success at Yorktown.
- D. McClellan needs to know where and what type of Confederate defenses will be set up around Richmond. He remembers the success of Private Thompson at Yorktown.

---

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Google Forms