

The Things They Carried Multiple Choice

4

Chapter 4

© 2021 TPP

* Required

1. Your Name: Last, First *

2. When back in college, how did the narrator feel about the war? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. He took a modest stand against it.
- B. He felt that fighting was his duty as a citizen.
- C. He didn't think about it.
- D. He felt it was justified because it defended democracy and freedom.

3. What job title did the narrator have in the summer of 1968? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. He was a clerk at a book store.
- B. He was a journalist for the local newspaper.
- C. He was a declotter at a meat processing plant.
- D. He was a manager at a pet food factory.

4. What happened one morning on the pig line? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. The narrator was badly injured in an accident.
- B. The narrator has a transformative experience resulting in his decision to flee to Canada to avoid the draft.
- C. The narrator's mom called and told him to come home.
- D. The narrator had a fistfight with his boss.

5. To where did the narrator drive? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. He drove to his favorite fishing spot.
- B. He drove to his aunt and uncle's house in Detroit.
- C. He drove to the Tip Top Lodge, near the Canadian border.
- D. He drove to visit his friend Jimmy.

6. Who was the hero of the narrator's life? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. The narrator's hero was his grandfather.
- B. The narrator's hero was Jesus Christ.
- C. The narrator's hero was his third grade teacher.
- D. The narrator's hero was Elroy Berdahl.

7. What was in the envelope tacked to the narrator's door? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. The envelope contained a fake driver's license.
- B. The envelope contained a letter that told a family secret.
- C. The envelope contained a bill for his motel stay.
- D. The envelope contained cash and a note that said "Emergency Fund."

8. Why did the narrator call himself a coward? *

1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. He called himself a coward because he is afraid of going to Vietnam.
- B. He called himself a coward because he went to war.
- C. He called himself a coward because he left his wife and children.
- D. He called himself a coward because he did not pay his motel bill.

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Google Forms