A Thousand Splendid Suns

Questions for Essay and Discussion

1. Explain whether you feel the ending of the novel is appropriate or realistic.

2. Write a character analysis of Laila, Mariam, Rasheed or Tariq. Be sure to include their personality traits, their motivation in the story, their strength and weaknesses, and your own opinion of each character.

3. What do you think is the central conflict in the story? Is the conflict internal or external? Support your answer with details from the novel.

4. How might the story have been different if Tariq really had died, as Abdul Sharif told Laila?

5. How might the novel be different if Hosseini used another point of view? Explain how the story might change if it were told in the first person or a non-alternating third person limited point of view.

6. Is there a hero in the novel? If so, who do you think it is? Explain, and be sure to include your definition of “hero.”

7. Consider Rasheed, Mariam, Laila, and Tariq. Of these characters, which are static (flat) and which are dynamic (round)? What major changes do the dynamic characters experience? Explain using details from the novel.

8. At which point in the novel does the climax take place? What effect does this climax have on the conflict and the characters?

9. What traits does Mariam have that would make her a good mother? Refer directly to the novel to provide examples of times when Mariam acts motherly.

10. Trace Laila’s and Mariam’s evolution over the course of the novel. How has each woman changed? What has each woman learned?

11. How might the novel be different if Mariam had lived?

12. Using details from the novel, explain the major political changes in Afghanistan from 1973 to 2003.

13. How might the ending of the novel been different if Laila had not received Mariam’s inheritance?
